OLALLA COMMUNITY EXCITED TO LAUNCH NEW SUMMER FESTIVAL

More than just a celebration of lavender, this festival has a heart for the local community.

Olalla, WA, April 15, 2024 - The unincorporated Olalla Community is thrilled to announce the launch of a new annual festival this summer: the Olalla Lavender Festival. Free admission tickets are available online.

The family friendly Olalla Lavender Festival will take place on the weekend of July 20th and 21st 2024, and will provide activities designed to offer something for everyone. Enjoy lavender workshops and crafts, lavender baking classes, and opportunities for family photography sessions in the multiple local lavender fields. Experience the best of local delectable treats along with local wine, beer and cider tasting.

There will also be live entertainment from some of our area's best-loved musicians, creating the perfect backdrop for an enchanting and relaxing day. In addition, an array of local artisans and vendors will be displaying a selection of handcrafted goods, all made with love and passion.

The Festival is free to attend, classes and workshops may have additional fees. As part of our commitment to giving back to our community, donations will be accepted towards supporting the local nonprofits of Olalla.

We warmly invite all residents of Kitsap County and beyond to share the joy of lavender and discover Olalla for a day or a weekend, it's a well hidden gem! Come enjoy our natural beauty, immerse yourself in lavender vibes, and engage with the wonderful local community during this charming event.

Free entrance tickets as well as workshop and class reservations can be made on the festival website: olalla-lavender-festival.com
